

Harlem Renaissance

1890-1940

Celebrating the Artistic Achievements
of African-Americans

In the early 20th century worldwide attention focused on the great flowering of art and literature that exploded out of the Harlem sector of Manhattan. The gifts of these artists inspired future generations and continue to influence world culture.

Recreating literature, music and poetry by artists such as Zora Neale Hurston, Duke Ellington and Langston Hughes, Bobby brings to life the excitement of the cultural awakening that was the Harlem Renaissance.

Bobby Norfolk

Emmy Award Winning
Storyteller

