

World Premier!

BEFORE THE LIGHTS GO OUT

Join us for a special evening of storytelling,
music and
theater.

Satchel
Paige

Emmy-winning storyteller
Bobby Norfolk
brings to life a forgotten era
in baseball
history.

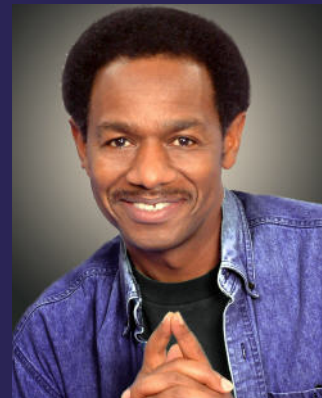

The Story of James "Cool Papa" Bell, Satchel Paige, and the Negro Baseball Leagues

A short documentary on the Negro Baseball Leagues
will be shown before the performance,
and after the show there will be a question
and answer period with the director, author
and performer.

Refreshments
available!

James
"Cool Papa"
Bell

Starring
Story-Performer
Bobby Norfolk

Conceived and Compiled by Gregory S. Carr

Directed by Beverly Brennan as a Tribute to Her Father, Sportscaster Jack Buck

8:00pm, Friday, August 27, 2010

Emerson Performance Center, Bank of America Theater

Harris-Stowe State University • 3026 Laclede Ave • St. Louis, MO 63103

314-340-5975

$10 - Adults • $5 - students, children under 12 and seniors over 65